WRESTLERS ARE PRIMED.

Barr and Mackey Meet at Catch Weights This Evening.

Eddie Barr, who claims the middle-weight wrestling championship of the United States, will meet Rob Roy Mackey in a finish match at the Washington Light Infantry Armory to-night, best two out of three falls. Barr will weigh about 150 pounds, while Mackey will be at about 130, but the Washington man has gained for him the title of welter-weight champion of the South that he did not hesitate to go out of his class when challenged by Barr.

The visiting grappler is from Ohio, and has long been known as one of the best men in the Middle West. He has met practically all the good heavy and middle weight wrestlers in this country and has always done well. His last match with a big man was with Frank Gotch, who said Barr was one of the few middle-weights he had ever seen upon whom he had to use the toe hold in order to gain a fall in a short time. He put the hold on Barr, while he did not exert all his strength, he twisted the leg of the Cincinnati so badly before the latter would yield that Barr was in bed for three days after the match.

Barr has challenged Fred Barr, who wrestled Mackey a draw some a week or so ago, a number of times, but Barr, although he says he is ready to meet any middle-weight in the business, has not come to the front with an acceptance of the deft of the Queen City grappler, according to Barr, and the match to-night with Mackey will give a good line on the respective merits of the two men.

There will be two good preliminaries to the main bout, and Pat O'Connor will be referee.

O'BRIEN AND BURNS AGREE.

Fighters Will Sign to Go in Ring for a $25,000 Purse.

New York, Dec. 14.—According to a report from Los Angeles, Tommy Burns and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien have agreed to fight to a finish at Rhyolite, Nev., on or before April 1, for a purse of $25,000.

Clark Skinner is the promoter of the mill. He met the two pugilists in a Los Angeles newspaper office Friday night and posted a certified check for $10,000, which will be forfeited to the men if the Rhyolite Athletic Club cannot pull off the battle, and also if the rest of the purse is not posted before the men enter the ring. Articles of agreement will probably be signed to-morrow or on Monday.

Their recent fight, in the opinion of many, Burns had a shade the better of it, because of his aggressiveness. O'Brien came out of that mill with a broken nose and an injured arm, yet he maintained stoutly that the battle was an even break. In a final fight, which O'Brien has been clamoring ever since, the Quaker believes that he will be able to make a far better showing than in the ring run he will best Burns with science, generalship, and physical endurance. Burns, however, is positive that he can win by the knock-out route.

RADTKE STILL ON GROUND.

Jockey Club Does Not Reinstates the Suspended Rider.

New York, Dec. 14.—Contrary to expectation, the stewards of the Jockey Club did not restore Herman Radtke, the suspended jockey, to good standing at the meeting held yesterday in the Windsor Arcade. There were present at the meeting Messrs. James R. Keene, J. H. Bradford, F. K. Sturges, and Andrew Miller. Mr. Keene presided. The report of the stewards, Messrs. Keene and Dingfield, to the stewards, who had during the Jamaica meeting when the race run by the horse Tommy Waddell brought about Radtke's suspension, was laid upon the table yesterday, to be taken up at a future meeting.

ARENA TO COST $40,000.

The arena in which Herman and Gans will meet will be a covered building erected at a cost of $40,000. It covers a site 140 feet square, with the floor of the twenty-four-foot ring elevated three and one-half feet above the ground. The seating capacity figures about 8,000 and with a packed house on New Year's Day the receipts will reach close to $50,000. When not used for fights the arena will be turned into a skating rink and dancing pavilion. The roof is partially constructed of glass so that ring contests can be held in summer as well as in winter. The law which permits such a Nevada was especially enacted by the legislature to permit Corbett and Fitzsimmons to settle their long standing difficulties at Carson City ten years ago.

JOHNSON AND COMISKY.

American League fans are well satisfied with the news that Ban Johnson and Charley Comiskey have buried the hatchet. Their quarrel was the first bit of friction in the new organization which they worked together for some time. Comiskey has often been referred to as one of the smartest men in baseball, while Johnson, a clever diplomat, has deserved all the praise he has received for making the American League what it is to-day. With Comiskey and Johnson pulling together baseball throughout the new circuit will probably boom even more successfully than last season, when the league prospered to the extent of an overflowing treasury and all the clubs on a paying basis.

GLAMOR WINS, 9 TO 20

Odds-on Choice Beats Gold Circle at City Park.

JOCKEY MARSTERS INJURED

While the Field Was Parading, Grace George Threw Her Rider and Ran Away About Three Miles. Toboggan a Winner—Summaries, and Entries for To-day's Events.

New Orleans, Dec. 14.—Glamor displayed her class in a six-furlong race to-day at City Park. She was made an odds-on favorite. Jockey Garner got her away last, but the filly raced to the outside and won in a romp from Gold Circle.

Toboggan, the favorite in the last event, broke the track record. The time of the race was one minute flat. Lady Esther, strongly backed, proved best in the seven-furlong purse affair. In which Jack Dolan was the betting choice. Jockey Hennessy took Lady Esther to the front at the start and won practically all the way. Oberon was the winner of the opening event.

Morales surprised the public and smart players alike by winning the fifth race in a drive. Sally Preston was supposed to be the thing in this event, and her owner, Robert Luckner, laid a big bet on her. Sally Preston had no chance. A small-sized sensation was created in the betting ring after the fifth race by Ira Galbreath, who cut in to-day, not having money enough to make good. Galbreath was $150 short.

A stately tool charge of Galbreath, but he was saved from being sent to jail by one of his friends making good the necessary amount.

Jockey Dale was suspended for the balance of the meeting by Starter Cassidy for disobedience at the post.

FOOTBALL CAPTAINS FOR 1907.

Nearly All the College Eleven Have Selected Leaders.

Most of the big football teams have elected captains for next season, and it is a noticeable fact that, while more backfield men have been chosen to lead the forces than linemen, only six quarter backs—the men who occupy the key positions on a football team—have been chosen to the highest honors. No matter who is captain of a football team, the quarter back gives the signals and in nine cases out of ten runs the team.

On the generalship of the quarter back depends the success of a team in close contest. The captains chosen for 1907 will be found appended:
